TO DAY

Creative Life Spiritual Center • Serving greater Houston since 1985 • Jesse G. Jennings, Founding Minister

Volunteer Day

Join us to thank our Center's volunteers for 2008-09, as well as share information on the volunteer opportunities that exist for you right now! This will happen before and (mostly) after the 11am celebration on Sunday, May 3, in the garden, where we will also have snacks available! Volunteers are specifically being enrolled in teaching our children on Sundays; working in gardening and maintenance; performing musically; assisting with the Solstice/Equinox events and blood drives; staffing our Renaissance Festival store this fall; and serving as Heartfelt Usher/Greeters. Will you help?

Forrest Yoga classes

Sonya Nelson

Come see why! It heals the body and soothes the soul. This style of yoga was created by Ana Forrest to use the age-old tradition of yoga to specifically address the physical challenges that plague modern-day men and women in Western culture. Join CLC practitioner Sonya Nelson, certified yoga instructor on Tuesdays from 5:15-6:30pm in Katherman Hall. Wear loose, comfortable clothing and do not eat two hours prior to the class start time. Bring a yoga mat. No yoga experience necessary. A new six-week series begins May 5: Six classes for $75 or drop in for any class for $15 to CLC. No class on June 9. More info:

Kingdom of Childhood book study

How can we bring to light in people what lies, god-given, within their nature after they have descended from pre-earthly life to earthly life? This is the kind of question that can be raised in an abstract way, but can only be answered concretely on the basis of a true knowledge of the human being in body, soul, and spirit.
—Rudolf Steiner

The Austrian philosopher and teacher, Rudolf Steiner influenced nearly every field of human endeavor. Waldorf education is perhaps his most enduring and widespread initiative. There are more than 150 Waldorf schools in North America and over 900 worldwide, double the number just a decade ago, making it possibly the fastest growing educational movement in the world. The Waldorf approach is based on an understanding of the developing child that takes into account the emergence of capacities for thinking, feeling and doing in predictable stages during the course of childhood. It is education that focuses on the whole child: heart, head and hands or the feeling, thinking and willing. The seven intimate, aphoristic talks collected as The Kingdom of Childhood were given by Rudolf Steiner to a small group on his last visit to England in 1924. The talks abound in practical illustrations and revolve around certain themes: the need for observation in the teacher; the dangers of stressing the intellect too early; the need in younger children for what is concrete and pictorial; the education of the soul through wonder and reverence; and the difference it makes when the imagination first grasps a whole so that the parts then later enter into their proper relation. Tuesdays, 6:30-7:30pm, through June 2, with CLC member Franc Cavazos and practitioner Yvonne Ryba. Meets in the youth wing. Love offering. Required book: The Kingdom of Childhood by Rudolf Steiner, available in our bookstore. More info:

Melody Berryman and Bob Pryor entertain our kids in the April 5 youth concert in Katherman Hall, performing original children's songs of Bob's. The next of these concerts will happen on Sunday, July 26.

Some of the kids helped in the front rose gardens, led by teacher Debra Morwood. Their next adventure is nature photography; see the results in our June newsletter. Here are JJ Nolan, Landon Darlington, Ledwin Oviedo, Janella Nolan, and Lianney Oviedo.

My Earth and I Are One Day Older

by Chip Carney, Heartfelt Living, Winter/Spring 2009

One potato ... two potato ... three potato ... four ... five billion ... six billion years ... seven billion years back into the limitless reaches of time. The dials and gauges in the dashboard of our time travel vehicle spin wildly suggesting readings that make no sense at all. The CD player has long since ceased to function. The compass has collapsed in tearful frustration. The whisper of time rushing past our outer shell is a reedy hiss. Streaks and flashes of what seems to be light sweep by the portholes and create an almost stroboscopic effect inside the cabin as we move about. But we do not move about much. We are in an unfamiliar place; the heady confidence of adventure has left us ... for now. Here we rein in our retrograde progress and begin to search – to make a careful listing and inventory. We find that the Universe of seven billion years ago, although quite ancient and wrought in wisdom itself, is entirely innocent of any knowledge of The Blue Planet ... The Topaz and Turquoise Jewel ... our Goodly Mother Earth. Here, She just isn't. Save in the Mind of God. And very much in my own mind, I might add. There is a loneliness to that; be sure of it. Even her sisters, Venus – Mars – Jupiter and the others, no where to be seen. Mars has never truly been comfortable being classed among Earth's Sisters, asserting in his manly way that he is, after all, the God of War. Well, we'll see if war turns out - in the last analysis - to be a significant part of our Precious Earth Mother's history. So, then, Universe, what about the giant Milky Way Galaxy? Can you at least direct us to the Great Milky Way?... Uncertain looks ... We're sorry; we don't know that name ... Hesitation ... We are so sorry. As I recline into my comfortable and accommodating chrono-transport seat, awaiting further instructions from the base at 2009, I give outlet to my wandering mind and pass the time piecing together a bit of verse, uniting what we are seeing here with what I know – what I feel.

The Poem

Seven billion years ago
To a place called Earth one could not go.
But then things changed, and rearranged
And space was made to stage our show.

A ripple of Divine Intent
Rolled out through the firmament.
Forms took shape where none had been,
Each one signed by God's great pen ... and then

With molten rock and pools of flame
As a red hot sphere she came
To wait and cool and find her place
Among her sisters there in space

She came and circled patiently
Her hills pushed high above her sea.
Primeval protoplasmic masses
Gave way to trees and birds and grasses.

'Twas in this lovely state I found her
Sun and Moon and stars around her
Hills now green; blue skies above her
I came to see and know and love her.

And then I sought to learn her reasons
I felt the passion of her seasons
Today I'll stop and just behold her
My Earth and I are one day older.

Power Up With Positive Prayer

What exactly is a “Religious Science practitioner”? Literally, a practitioner is anybody who practices something; our Religious Science practitioners are trained in the art and science of spiritual support using affirmative prayer, and are committed to serving your needs. Each has spent literally hundreds of hours in training, to direct natural compassion into helping you through listening, caring, and using spiritual mind treatment — affirmative prayer — to reveal the truth of you that is greater than any apparent limitation. Each is licensed by the United Centers for Spiritual Living, and engages in ongoing study and spiritual development.

Help is Nearby

Our Creative Life practitioners are outstanding spiritual support persons, available to lovingly and confidentially assist you, and are at your service...

- Sundays at “The Power of Prayer” (now in the downstairs meditation room) where requests are received and acted upon in a small group setting, or with the practitioner of your choice in the Great Hall or garden for a quick “meet and treat”...
- By appointment, on an individual fee basis for a one-hour session of spiritual support and treatment...
- CLC members receive an annual invitation by mail for a free “birthday checkup” with the practitioner of your choice (see list at left). Just pick up a form in the Practitioners’ Loft and call for your appointment...
- More options requesting and receiving prayer support include using a form on our website by going to www.creativelife.org/links/prayerrequest.php. Further, trained, skilled practitioners await your call to the UCSL World Ministry of Prayer, 24 hours a day, every day at (800) 421-9600 or by email to prayer@wmop.org.

What Practitioners Do

“Stated in its simplest terms, the spiritual practitioner, without denying the body, the environment or the physical word, seeks to bring them into line with a recognition of spiritual or divine realities. When he says, ‘God is all the presence, power and activity there is,’ he is not merely numbing a lot of words; she is consciously bringing her thought, through faith and conviction, under the government of a superior harmony, a coordinating will, and a necessary Divine Presence. This is not an act of superstition, nor is it a vain repetition of words or wishful thinking. The practitioner’s mind is not in a dream state. Quite the reverse. It is more nearly like coming out of a dream state into a great reality ... it is the very essence of clear thinking.”

—ERNEST HOLMES, from How to Use the Science of Mind

Besides meeting with clients, what do practitioners do?

As noted earlier, practitioners at Creative Life participate in the Sunday and Wednesday gatherings. They also team-teach most of the Science of Mind classes we offer, and help make hospital visits and provide bereavement support. In addition to this, they volunteer in a wide range of non-practitioner-related areas of our Center. At any given time, you’re likely to see one teaching a child in our Sunday youth program, or cleaning, or gardening, or greeting a newcomer, or behind the counter at our Renaissance Festival bookstore.
