Dream Interpretation Workshop

Yvonne Ryba

Do you want to know what your dreams mean? Come to this 3½-hour workshop and learn how to interpret the meaning behind your dreams.

We all dream in symbolic language. Each of us has a personal dream dictionary within us, coupled with the knowledge of universal symbols, e.g. the ocean, an old woman, a snake. In this workshop we will discuss this symbolic language using our own dreams to reveal their meanings. Practitioner Yvonne Ryba has kept dream journals for over 30 years. Her family recognized the power of dreams and she found she had an ability to help others understand their own. She has hundreds of dreams she collected from people and has written on "Dreams From the Bible" for a St. George, Utah, newspaper as well as having two 30-minute TV programs on dream interpretation. She held workshops across the country in among other places, New York City, Santa Fe, Napa Valley, and San Antonio.

Dreams fall into four main categories. In this workshop, we will focus on the Message Dream. This type comes to us when we have problems and point us towards the solution, but first, we have to unravel the meaning behind the message! Please bring one or more dreams, which you have written out, with you. You will be given a workbook to keep. There will be a short break for refreshments during the morning; bring snacks with you if you wish. Saturday, April 25, 9:30am-1:00pm. Cost is $25. More info: cephe6@aol.com

Conscious Giving

Everything you see around the Creative Life campus, from the carpets to the coffee to the 6+ acres of land we now own and occupy, was manifested through the generosity of our Center members and friends—folks like you! Please remember the ongoing life of your Center, which costs about $5,000 per week to fund, by doing your part and more if you can! You can donate to Creative Life by credit or debit card (and soon, Paypal), on a one-time or regular basis—just visit the bookstore to set up this service. We also have giving envelopes if you would like to mail in your gift. We are a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, so your donations are fully tax-deductible to the extent provided by law.

Creative Life Spiritual Center

"I never knew there was a place that teaches what I've always believed!"

5326 Spring-Stuebner Road
Spring, Texas 77389-4574

Creative Life is a spiritual community in suburban Houston, Texas, teaching and living the Science of Mind, a transformational path first articulated by the American philosopher Ernest Shurtleff Holmes (1887-1960).

We have activities for all people and interests, and welcome everyone, especially those for whom traditional Western religion has seemingly had no place.

Serving greater Houston since 1985, Creative Life is a member of the United Centers for Spiritual Living (formerly known as the United Church of Religious Science), which dates from 1927. "Science of Mind" and the circle-and-v symbol are registered trademarks. Membership in our Center is a statement of your commitment to your own spiritual process, using the principles taught here as a springboard, as well as a way of shaping our Center's collective future and enjoying a symbiotic, caring relationship.

No prior spiritual affiliation need be renounced in order to join us. Membership request cards can be found in the Great Hall vestibule, bookstore, or requested by mail or e-mail.

Forrest Yoga continues

Sonya Nelson

Join practitioner and certified yoga instructor Sonya Nelson to learn the joy of breathing fully and to increase the flexibility of your spine. The more pliable your spine, the more flow you bring into your body, your limbs, bones and muscles. Your age is not determined by a number of years but in the flexibility of your spine. And as you strengthen your muscles, as your bones increase their response to structural stress, as the various fluids nourish the cartilage, your spine is supported. This mutually beneficial relationship is fostered and supported with yoga. And the benefits last longer because you bring intention to and participate in your own healing. Classes take place in Katherman Hall on one Sunday — April 5 — from 4:00-5:15pm, and three Tuesdays — April 7, 14 and 28 (no class April 21) — from 5:15-6:30pm. The cost is $15 per session. Wear loose, comfortable clothing and do not eat two hours prior to class start time. Bring a yoga mat if you have one as a limit number of loaner mat are available. For more information e-mail Sonya at:

The Kingdom of Childhood book study

How can we bring to light in people what lies, god-given, within their nature after they have descended from pre-earthly life to earthly life? This is the kind of question that can be raised in an abstract way, but can only be answered concretely on the basis of a true knowledge of the human being in body, soul, and spirit. —Rudolf Steiner

The Austrian philosopher and teacher, Rudolf Steiner influenced nearly every field of human endeavor. Waldorf education is perhaps his most enduring and widespread initiative. There are more than 150 Waldorf schools in North American and over 900 worldwide, double the number just a decade ago, making it possibly the fastest growing educational movement in the world. The Waldorf approach is based on an understanding of the developing child that takes into account the emergence of capacities for thinking, feeling and doing in predictable stages during the course of childhood. It is education that focuses on the whole child: heart, head and hands or the feeling, thinking and willing. The seven intimate, aphoristic talks collected as The Kingdom of Childhood were given by Rudolf Steiner to a small group on his last visit to England in 1924. The talks abound in practical illustrations and revolve around certain themes: the need for observation in the teacher; the dangers of stressing the intellect too early; the need in younger children for what is concrete and pictorial; the education of the soul through wonder and reverence; and the difference it makes when the imagination first grasps a whole so that the parts then later enter into their proper relation. Seven Tuesdays, 6:30-7:30pm, April 21 through June 2, with CLC member Franc Cavazos and practitioner Yvonne Ryba. Meets in the youth wing. Love offering. Required book: The Kingdom of Childhood by Rudolf Steiner, available at www.amazon.com. More info:

“Oh My Lord, I’m Slow of Speech!”

Tim Eatman

Have you ever had a great idea only to keep it to yourself and discover later that someone else has put it into action? Have you ever had something important to say in a group setting, but kept it to yourself because you were not comfortable speaking in a group? When God told Moses he was chosen to lead his people, Moses argued with God and said, “Oh my Lord, I’m slow of speech!” And God said, “So who do you think made your mouth?” (or something like that!)

On Sunday, April 26, from 1:30 to 3:30pm, and on Monday, April 27 from 7-9pm, you will have the opportunity to discover new ways to think about your Power and the Divine Ideas you get from God. The Monday class is a repeat of the Sunday seminar, so you need only attend one of the sessions. Offered on a love offering basis, this seminar is facilitated by Creative Life member Dr. Tim Eatman. Tim is a college speech professor, song writer, professional speaker/entertainer, and spiritual communication minister.

This two-hour seminar is not a speech class or a public speaking course. It is an interactive spiritual journey designed to reconnect us with our Higher Power so that we will hear our Divine Ideas, open up our throat chakra, and feel comfortable in sharing our Truth with others without attachment to the outcome. Tim promises that you’ll have fun and no one will be pressured into the spotlight, but by the end of the session you’ll have a new perspective about your Power and your Purpose. Whether you consider yourself shy, a stutterer, or even a confident speaker, there is something for you to discover about you at this dynamic seminar. For more information, contact Dr. Tim Eatman at holyfun@sbcglobal.net.

Wednesday, April 22, 7pm, in the Great Hall. Donation.

Power Up With Positive Prayer

What exactly is a “Religious Science practitioner”? Literally, a practitioner is anybody who practices something; our Religious Science practitioners are trained in the art and science of spiritual support using affirmative prayer, and are committed to serving your needs. Each has spent literally hundreds of hours in training, to direct natural compassion into helping you through listening, caring, and using spiritual mind treatment — affirmative prayer — to reveal the truth of you that is greater than any apparent limitation. Each is licensed by the United Centers for Spiritual Living, and engages in ongoing study and spiritual development.

Help is Nearby

Our Creative Life practitioners are outstanding spiritual support persons, available to lovingly and confidentially assist you, and are at your service...

- Sundays at “The Power of Prayer” (now in the downstairs meditation room) where requests are received and acted upon in a small group setting, or with the practitioner of your choice in the Great Hall or garden for a quick “meet and treat”...
- By appointment, on an individual fee basis for a one-hour session of spiritual support and treatment...
- CLC members receive an annual invitation by mail for a free “birthday checkup” with the practitioner of your choice (see list at left). Just pick up a form in the Practitioners’ Loft and call for your appointment...
- More options requesting and receiving prayer support include using a form on our website by going to www.creativelife.org/links/prayerrequest.php. Further, trained, skilled practitioners await your call to the UCSL World Ministry of Prayer, 24 hours a day, every day at (800) 421-9600 or by email to prayer@wmop.org.

What Practitioners Do

“[The practitioner’s] authority is not that of one who feels she knows something that others could not know, or that he has been endowed with some grace of Providence which has been denied to others. Hers is the authority of one who knows there are spiritual and mental laws in the universe just as there are physical laws, and that they operate in the same manner. He believes in these laws and knows how to use them. The spiritual mind practitioner does not think of herself as a healer any more than a mathematician thinks of himself as the principle of mathematics. There is but one healing agency, which is Life, Spirit or Truth. Metaphysics is an unusually persistent and stubborn attempt to think straight. The whole endeavor of a spiritual mind practitioner is straight thinking.” —ERNEST HOLMES, from How to Use the Science of Mind

Will a practitioner help advise me on choosing my life’s path?

In a practitioner session, a man once asked Ernest Holmes, our founder, what he should do about such-and-such a problem. Holmes replied, “I don’t know what you should do, but there is Something that does know. Let’s turn to that now.” A practitioner can tell you his or her experience of being a practitioner, and can suggest reading material, classes and other places to learn more about our teaching. Apart from this, a practitioner’s advice is no better than anybody else’s, and they are specifically enjoined from giving specific advice. They’re here to listen, to discuss, and to pray.
